

Dear Parents,

Your child has been chosen to take part in the District Cross Country Competition on Thursday 20th April which is held at our school.

Children will require their full purple Florence PE kit and trainers that they do not mind getting muddy as we will be running on the field.

If your child is interested in participating in the competition, could you please complete the slip below as soon as possible. Please contact the school if they do not wish to compete and their place will be reallocated.

Parents are welcome to attend the competition and watch, with the races starting at 10.00am. Gates will be open at 9.30am.
